

MAY ALL WALK OUT

And Detroit People May Suffer for Bread

BAKERS AND CAPITAL TO FIGHT

Only One Man Shows Up for Work—A Boycott is Threatened—Non-Unionists Will Probably Suffer.

DETROIT, April 26.—A committee of four from Bakers' union No. 20 called on the Wagner Baking company, yesterday, and notified the firm that a meeting of the union had just been held and that Joseph Walter, foreman of the shop, had been expelled from the union because he had endeavored to prevail on his men not to strike for day work May 1. The committee delivered a letter from the union setting forth the fact that the foreman had been expelled and also demanding that the firm discharge him from his employment by 11 o'clock April 26; otherwise their employees would be ordered out at that hour.

At the meeting of the Employing Bakers' association held yesterday, discussion of the situation the Wagners made up their minds not to discharge the foreman and the rest of the association sustained their resolution. When the Wagners reached this conclusion they ordered for Wednesday's delivery from other members of the association. At another meeting of the association held last evening, Mr. Shields of the Morton Baking company reported that he informed his men that he had an extra order for 2000 loaves of bread to be baked tonight, and finding it was for the Wagners, they said they would not bake a loaf for him. Mr. Shields saying he would be compelled to turn the order in the regular course of business, received for reply that the men would strike at 11 o'clock today.

The men were evidently impatient to go out, as only one showed up this morning.

It is estimated that life will be made pretty miserable for the "scabs" who do come in and persist in going to work in spite of the trouble. A boycott may be expected on the firms who employ scab labor.

FROM PULPIT TO TRACK.

Parson Arney Resigns and His Congregation is in Mourning.

SARASOTA, April 26.—Parson Arney has preached his last sermon as pastor of the Methodist church in this place and with the exception of very few persons the entire population is sorry. For some time past there has been a little feeling in the church on account of his stables and to relieve these few members Mr. Arney read his resignation at the close of Sunday morning's sermon, much to the surprise of the members. The Rev. Arney has done a great work in Sarasota and vicinity during his two years' residence here by lifting the church membership up from almost zero to one of the best in the state, and instead of preaching to empty houses he has always been greeted with a very large congregation. At South Boston he has built up a fine congregation, starting it himself in addition to his other labors. At Woodland he repeated his work here, and the same can be said of Freeport, besides conducting two very successful revivals. It is supposed that the cause of Mr. Arney's resignation was the talk that was made on account of his Saturday evening matinee exhibitions that he proposes to keep on giving every Saturday with his own horses. Mr. Arney has not said what he intended to do, but will probably stay here until conference meets three months hence. Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday and many tears were shed by his church members who are loth to lose him as their pastor.
